

Expression of Interest for 10 Day Artist Residency

Winner announced at the Closing Event Sunday 7 September 3pm in the Cooran Hall

Eumundi Guesthouse and B&B owners Suzie and David Campin have been offering artist in residence opportunities for some years and are now offering one lucky entrant in the Tall Trees Art Exhibition – Cooran 6 and 7 September 2025 an Artist Residency to be taken in 2026.

The residency provides accommodation in a self contained cottage for 10 days at no cost to the artist. Winner to negotiate with Suzie and David dates – to be taken during the period of 1 February to 28 May 2026, as agreed.

The Eumundi retreat facility is 72m square and has a large lounge/work area, a kitchenette/dining area, bedroom and bathroom.

Fill in the details below to be considered for this fabulous professional development prize.

Please describe the residency intention (what you plan to do)

As there is no wet area, the space lends is better used for research, sketching, planning than the actual production of work but could be a combination – attach an extra page if necessary.

Describe your art practice/genre of work _____

Entry guidelines You must be a current member of Tall Trees Art Inc and have entered work in the Tall Trees Art Exhibition 2025.

Only apply if you are serious about taking time off from family, friends and work – this is an opportunity to work on your arts practice with little distraction, it is not a holiday.

By signing below, you agree to share the preliminary or finished work created during the residency and subsequently after the residency if needed, by displaying these outcomes at the Tall Trees Art Exhibition 2026.
